

12/1/09

Objective:

TSWBAT write and identify appositives

Vocabulary and Rules:

appositive: is a word or group of words that identifies or tells more about the noun it follows.

Jessica, my best friend, has a video about Hannah Montana.

Commas are used to set off most appositives from the rest of the sentence.

Practice:

Directions: underline the noun and circle the appositive in each sentence.

1. Ms. Suni, the science teacher, asked us to research an interesting topic for a report.

2. Duane, my lab partner, thought we should write a report on weather.

3. Mom suggested we use a search engine, an internet research tool, to locate facts.

4. The scientist looked at the thermometer, an instrument to measure temperature.

5. Meteorology, the study of weather, is interesting.

Now you try. Complete #'s 6-10 on page 99.

Homework

Practice and Reteach 24

