

12/3/09

Objective:

TSWBAT create
sentences with compound subjects and objects.

Vocabulary and Rules:

If two sentences have the same predicate (verb) but different subjects (nouns), you can combine them by joining the subjects (nouns) with and or or.

Matthew joined the band. Stephanie joined the band.

Matthew and Stephanie joined the band.

If two sentences have the same subject (noun) and verb but different objects, you can combine them by joining the objects.

Miss D. likes monkeys. Miss D likes turtles.

Miss D. likes monkeys and turtles.

Practice:

Directions: Name the nouns that can be joined to combine the sentences.

1. Marcus will tell jokes. Daniel will tell jokes.

2. The choir will perform. The band will perform.

3. the show attracts adults. The show attracts children.

4. Michelle bought tickets. Michelle bought popcorn.

5. The singer can open the show. The comedian can open the show.

Homework:
Reteach # 25